1	Great welcome and introduction. The passion and commitment is there for all to see.
2	no real problems encountered, other than a bit of feedback, but what is to be expected with such a large group
3	Motivational speakers. Inclusive and positive. An inspiration in these challenging times.
4	Facilitators were very welcoming, friendly and took time to make sure attendees and guests were listened to and opportunity to ask any questions and give feedback
5	Just a little bit unsure of the relevance of some of the speakers to the theme of the event, especially the vet.

1	The presentations flowed well. My only comment is that some of the speakers on the mixed abilities sports presentation didn't have their cameras set right, so wasn't easy to see them properly. Thoroughly enjoyed the discussions though
2	Good range of speakers and loved the interactive activities - the exercises were a great way to get going after the break.
3	Very inspiring speakers who did brilliantly on MS Teams
4	first speaker was extremely compelling
5	I thoroughly enjoyed all the presentations, they were delivered with such passion and gusto. there was networking going on in the group chat too which was lovely to see. we may ask one of the groups to attend our directorate meeting in the future too.
6	Good to have speakers use down to earth language and share real life experiences.
7	It would have been helpful if participants could have turned their camera's off so that the speakers could appear on the full screen when they'd got their cameras on - I would have found this especially useful during the fitness workout and whilst Julian was presenting
8	All speakers were inspiring, interesting and personal. All were very different in content and delivery but all resonated the topic of resilience either in ones self or groups and communities.
9	The speakers were great, especially Jimmy. Very inspirational which is what you need at the moment!! I found myself laughing out loud at various stages but also had tears at one point as what he had to say was so pertinent in the current times. Not sure how you find someone to top him!!

1	I didn't get a link to join the event beforehand so had to request one on the morning. I missed the introduction to the session
2	An effective way to deliver this meeting
3	nothing to report on other than Alistair Brownlee video didn't play very smoothly, but that added to it if anything. resilience can be difficult to achieve.
